

---

SHARING

Hymns (What we're praising God for):

Lessons (What God is teaching us):

Requests (What we're asking God to do):

---

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Read the passage (Romans 12:1-2) and answer the following questions:

1. What stands out most and why?
  2. What does the passage reveal to us about God?
  3. What does the passage reveal to us about ourselves?
  4. What are the immediate application points?
-

DEEPER DISCUSSION

1. Rick continued to reiterate his main question – “Who Do You Listen To?” What are the loudest voices competing for our attention?
2. Rick mentioned that the only person you always listen to is yourself. Do you agree or disagree? Explain.
3. If you're the only person you consistently listen to, then what could we do to make sure that we're giving ourselves wise counsel?
4. Read Hebrews 5:11-14. What is hindering the readers of Hebrews from understanding deep truth? Rick mentioned that “dull of hearing” might also be translated “too lazy to understand.” How does our sense of hearing God become dull? What might we do to keep it sharp?
5. A regular pattern of Bible reading is essential for our growth in the Lord. What is the biggest challenge that you face in regular bible reading? How could you take a step forward this week?